

Darrell D. Redmond

June 15, 1965 - May 4, 2017

Tuesday, June 15, 1965, the Lord presented to the world and to Arber and Royal Redmond a much anticipated baby boy. He was named Darrell Dewayne Redmond.

Darrell was used as an instrument of God because at an early age he could preach the Word and others would listen. At the tender age of five, an illness fell upon him causing him to die in his Mother's arms; however God gave him back, giving him forty-five additional years of life.

During Darrell's walk of life he met a special companion, Sharon Ann Smith and to their union three children were born; Darwana Redmond, Royal "Lil Royal" Smith and Darrell Redmond Smith.

Thursday, May 4, 2017, Darrell was called home after a very lengthy illness. He fought a good fight.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his daughters, Darwana Redmond and Royal Smith; his mother,

Royal Redmond; his sisters, Bettie Carter, Jessie Sellers (Earnest) and Mary Smallie; his brothers, Aubrey Ray Richmond, Quarren "Boo-boo" Smallie; the children he helped rear, Lakisha Roseblum, Brian Smith, Candice Smith and Christy Smith; a special friend, Dana Hunt and a host of grandchildren, relatives and friends who will miss him dearly.
