“ Phil you were a good dude all the time. The same Phil everyday never switching up. You were always smiling and talking about God. You would say you better get right with God everytime I saw you. Last time I saw you you were proudly driving a route on the truck. We laugh and talked until traffic came. I know you got your wings cuz I will miss you!!!

“ I am so glad that I had the pleasure of being able to call you my uncle . So many laughs and great memories that I will always remember, cherish and hold dear to my heart . I will always remember your quiet but humorous spirit that lit up a room. Your wisdom and knowledge, your happy spirit and your joyous smile is to always be cherished . I am happy to say that I had one of the best uncles in the world who lived and had a prosperous and blessed life. My heart is so heavy with sadness and grief now but I know that you are resting and peace and joy will soon come(Romans 8:18) You will forever be in my heart and I will always remember and love my Uncle Jerry .

“ The hardest thing I have done in my life is write on an obituary wall for you Uncle Jerry. My heart is heavy beyond words can even express. You were definitely more than an uncle to me, more like a father. You are the reason I am the woman I today. You helped my mother raise me and helped me raise my little ones. I wish they were able to actually grow with you like I did. But anyways, I'm glad I was able to express to you how much I appreciate and love you while you were here. I'm forever grateful God allowed me 32 years with you.

Many are called but few are chosen. Love you forever and always

*Broken Chain
We little knew that morning
that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.*
