

Ms Patricia Ann Crawford

November 10, 1950 - November 6, 2025

Ms. Patricia Ann Shaw Crawford was born in Memphis, Tennessee to Robert and Sarah Steele, whom both preceded her in death.

She professed a hope in Christ at an early age.

As a youth, she was a member of International House of Prayer, Bishop George Lusk, along with family. Later, she became a member of Holy Temple under the leadership of Pastors Leatha Clark and Sarah Steele. She later became a member of Rose of Sharon FGDT Holiness Church under the leadership of Bishop Sarah Steele after she solely founded her own church. And she remained a member there until her health began to fail under the present pastor, Apostle Carrie Steele Clayton. She was on the Board of Trustees, Financial Secretary, Church Elder, Teacher, Ministerial staff, Psalmist. She was joined in Holy Matrimony to Wilbert Crawford, who preceded her in transitioning. To this union two children were born, William and Jocqueline Crawford. She leaves to cherish her memories, son, William Crawford, Sr.; daughter, Jocqueline Crawford; four grandchildren, William Jr., Jockey, Gabrielle and Xavier Crawford; one brother, Robert, Jr.; sisters, Apostle Carrie Steele Clayton and Sandra Steele, nieces and nephew, Gwendolyn (Jerome) Goliday, Shanta and Larry Steele, Robert Causey, who preceded her in transitioning; a host of grand and great nieces and nephews.
